GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS NORVELL TO ROWAN-CABARRUS COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Edward P. Norvell of Salisbury to the Rowan-Cabarrus Community College Board of Trustees.

Norvell has been a member of the board since 1996. He serves as legal counsel for the Conservation Trust for North Carolina. Norvell is president of Rowan Museum Inc. and a member of the board of directors for Downtown Salisbury Inc., Salisbury YMCA, Piedmont Players Theatre, Inc. and the Land Trust for Central North Carolina. He is also a member of the Rowan County and N.C. Bar Associations. He received his bachelor's degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, his master's degree in English and creative writing from the City University of New York and his law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law.

Board duties are to elect a president, employ personnel, purchase land necessary for the college's operation, apply standards and regulations to admission and graduation, receive gifts and donations, and provide instructional services. There are 14 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members.
